independent, active investment with an alternative world perspective

Our aim is to deliver strong, long-term results for our clients using a selection of the world's most talented investment professionals. We seek to achieve and – wherever possible – outperform their investment objectives through an exceptional focus on both producing returns and managing risk.

Our perspective is global. Our insights run deep and our methods are transparent. We actively embrace new and emerging approaches when we think they'll give our clients better and more enduring returns.
